

JASS

Jewish Activism
Summer School
Berlin & Potsdam

JASS 2022 Course Listing

Core Course: Jewish Activism Yesterday and Today

Prof. Jonathan Schorsch
Professor of Jewish Religious and Intellectual History, Universität Potsdam
Founder and Director, JASS

Introduction to Design Thinking

Mai Amit
Senior Design Researcher, Designit
JASS Alum

Building Power to Win Justice - Jewish Community Organizing

Charlotte Fischer
Senior Community Organizer, Citizens
UK

Abraham Benaroya, Sephardic Father of Greek Labor Socialism

Kostis Karpozilos
Historian; Director of the Contemporary
Social History Archives (ASKI), Athens

The Jewish Anarchism of Gustav Landauer

Dekel Peretz
Founder, Eruv Hub, Germany's first coworking space for Jewish nonprofit organizations and initiatives

Founder, LABA Berlin, an artist fellowship program that combines the study of Jewish texts with artistic production

PhD, Universität Potsdam and the Moses Mendelssohn Center for European Jewish Studies

The Strange Other: Using Art to Tackle Social Difference & Tikkun Olam Makers

Polly Zaharieva
Project Manager, JDC's Junction Project Morning show producer, organizer of various art festivals and the first Pablo Picasso exhibition in Bulgaria

Words to Action: Empowering Jewish Students to Address Antisemitism (ADL training)

Dalia Grinfeld

Deputy Director for European Affairs, the Anti-Defamation League (ADL)

First President of Jüdischen Studierendenunion Deutschland (JSUD, the Jewish Student Union of Germany)

Introduction to Deep Democracy

Yonathan Keren

Founder and Head Trainer, House of Deep Democracy (Amsterdam)
Certified Deep Democracy Elder

Providing Birth Control as if it Really Mattered

Dr. Rebecca Gomperts

Founder, Women on Waves

Radical Political Economy from the Talmud

Rabbi Elisa Klapheck

Spiritual Leader, Egalitarian Minyan
(Frankfurt a.M.)

On Hand in Hand: An Israeli Network of Integrated, Bilingual Jewish-Arab Schools

Lee Gordon

Founder, Hand in Hand

❖ Additional courses still to be determined